

OPERATION HER ONLY CHANCE

Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Adrian, Ga.—"I suffered untold misery from a female weakness and disease, and I could not stand more than a minute at a time. My doctor said an operation was the only chance I had, and I dreaded it almost as much as death. One day I was reading how other women had been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and decided to try it. Before I had taken one bottle I was better, and now I am completely cured."—LENA V. HENRY, Route No. 8, Adrian, Ga.

Why will women take chances with an operation or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion, and nervous prostration. If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be absolutely confidential, and the advice free.

WESTERLY DRUGGIST ARRESTED

On Charge of Keeping Liquors with Intent to Sell—Plans for Farmers' Institute—Business Change—Day's Doings in the Probate Court—Burke Will May Be Contested—Landlord Manifests Narrowness and Unjust Discrimination.

John J. Dunn, secretary of the state board of agriculture, is completing arrangements for a new departure planned by the board in connection with the lecture work. An institute will be held next month, which will include morning, afternoon and evening sessions, and Secretary Dunn has already secured as speakers:

Henry G. Manchester of Winsted, Conn. who will speak on "The Cow, Bread and Butter"; H. O. Daniels, Middletown, Conn., on "Economic Dairy Feeding"; Sylvester B. Stearns of Cheshire, on "Poultry Raising"; Prof. Daniel K. Lambert, of the Rhode Island college, on "Poultry"; Prof. Henry J. Whelan, of the Rhode Island college, on "Economic Farm Lanes"; and Glen C. Seavey, editor of New England Homestead, on "Opportunities of New England Farmers."

Judge John J. Sweeney of Westerly attended the meeting of the Rhode Island under the charter granted by the legislature. The meeting was presided over by Bishop Matthew Harkins and was held in the basement of the cathedral in Providence. 130 charter members were in attendance. Officers were:

Dr. John W. Keefe, president; Col. Patrick H. Quinn, first vice president; William P. Thomas of the Third district, Dr. William F. Gleason, Dr. J. B. McKenna, ex-Gov. James H. Higgins, M. J. Houlahan, Thomas E. O'Donnell, William J. Vesley, Emory J. San Souci, James J. McGovern and Judge John W. Sweeney, board of managers; Rt. Rev. Bishop Matthew Harkins, director; John J. Connelly, treasurer; Patrick J. Curran, secretary.

The club starts with a charter list of 176 members. A constitution and by-laws were adopted and the board of managers was instructed to arrange for a banquet in the near future.

Albert G. Martin, who conducts a grocery store in the Potter building on the bridge, and who, in part, represents the town of Stonington in the legislature, is soon to be out of the grocery business. The store to be vacated by Mr. Martin will be taken by R. G. Elven & Co., whose store adjoins that of Martin's. The store will be connected.

The Luke Maxson case which developed into quite a contest when the will was presented for probate in the Westerly probate court, when John H. Maxson appeared as a principal, is still receiving legal attention. Mr. and Mrs. Maxson, with whom Luke Maxson had boarded for several years, presented claims for services rendered, which were disallowed by the executor, Henry H. Crandall, and the estate became involved.

Upon petition of executor, Judge Edward M. Burke appointed as commissioners William L. Clarke, Charles Perry and Joseph Moore. The commissioners held a session in the town clerk's office, Tuesday morning, to give parties in interest opportunity to prove claims. Judge John H. Sweeney represented the Maxsons and Judge Nathan B. Lewis the executor. Quite a number of witnesses were heard, and the commissioners will give the claims further consideration.

There was a regular session of the Westerly probate court Tuesday afternoon. Judge Edward M. Burke gave extended decision in the important case of the estate of Sarah C. Gallagher, which brought out several points of more than ordinary interest, several of which are now to Rhode Island courts. The case is likely to go to the supreme court of final decision. In conclusion Judge Burke says:

For the reasons set forth this court holds that the legatee in question does not lapse. This being the case, the legatee in question would ordinarily take the estate of Sarah C. Gallagher Babcock McCray. It not appearing in evidence whether the husband of this legatee is living or dead or divorced, and the evidence in regard to the children of the legatee not being sufficiently clear to this court, the court will hear further evidence and argument on this point.

The decree was continued to the next session of the court.

The final account of the estate of Mary Conroy, executrix of the estate of Michael Conroy, was presented, and allowed and ordered recorded. Release of Margaret to Mary Conroy in the estate was recorded.

The inventory of the estate of Alexander Allen, showing a valuation of $124.50, was received and ordered recorded; as were also inventories of the estates of Andrew M. E. Clarke, $441.12; and James A. Tuff, $256.09, personal, and $1,056.09 real estate.

The petitions of the administrator of the estate of the late George H. Allen, executor of the estate of George H. Allen, were presented, and allowed and ordered recorded.

The inventory of the estate of Alexander Allen, showing a valuation of $124.50, was received and ordered recorded; as were also inventories of the estates of Andrew M. E. Clarke, $441.12; and James A. Tuff, $256.09, personal, and $1,056.09 real estate.

Why You Suffer With Indigestion

ALSO THE CERTAIN CURE
FOR STOMACH TROUBLE.
QUICK RELIEF WAITING
There Will be Very Few Dyspeptics
Here After This Remarkable Preparation Becomes Better Known.

Does it ever occur to you how busy that little stomach of yours is? It actually only holds three pints, though in one year you force it to take in 2,500 pounds of material, digest it and prepare it for assimilation to the blood. Do you wonder at the number of cases of indigestion and stomach trouble? You crowd it with steaks and pastry, irritate its juices with spices and acids and expect this little four-ounce mill to do its work.

Is there any wonder that your food passes undigested or lays like a lump of lead in the stomach? That everything you eat turns to acid, stomach gas and stomach poison, purifying the intestines and digestive canals, causing biliousness, headaches, nausea, sour breath, constipation and other more dangerous symptoms. Call your disease what you will—Indigestion, Gastritis, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Catarrh of the Stomach, etc.—you know the real name, the real disease is fermentation of the food you eat—a sour stomach, which belches gas and cramps undigested food or causes a feeling of nausea and miserableness.

These miseries vanish promptly when you stop this food fermentation. Take fifty cents to your pharmacist for a case of Pepp's Dispepsin. Eat a triangle, not a square, and you will find your stomach will do what a healthy stomach should—that is, turn every bite you eat into bodily nourishment and without you realizing that you have a stomach. One triangle will digest all the food you eat without the aid of the stomach, and you will find that the elements found in a good, strong, healthy stomach.

"Dignity Is What We Use To Conceal Our Ignorance"

is Elbert Hubbard's definition of the word dignity.

Unquestionably Elbert is correct, and every thinking person will agree with him.

Think of the people with dignity and count those having it naturally. He who has it naturally, combined with ability, is a great success in life. Those with assumed dignity are well, they are understood and discounted by the public.

We've no dignity, natural or assumed, and if it was a temptation by us the public would discount it. Let the public estimate us correctly, give us credit for a thorough knowledge of the photograph business; for doing the work at reasonable prices. Years of experience in this business exclusively entitles us to it.
